

Our Team, CHENEGA FEDERAL SYSTEMS Your Solution

CORE COMPETENCIES

Chenega Federal Systems, LLC (CFS) is a professional services provider for the Defense and Intelligence sectors of the federal government. With offices headquartered in Lorton, Virginia, and operations in Tampa and Miami, Florida, CFS provides support to clients domestically and abroad.

CFS provides professional services, focused on intelligence and military operations, including culture-linguist expertise, communications, systems engineering, software and training development, SETA, information operations and information technology.

Our client base spans all five service components of the Department of Defense (DoD), with emphasis on combatant commands in the Intelligence and Special Operations communities, civil agencies and commercial and private sector corporations.

Since 2005, Chenega Federal Systems has been recognized as a leader in the areas of Intelligence, Information Technology, Information Operations and Systems Engineering. We provide subject matter experts trained in the latest collection, analysis and dissemination methodologies, IT applications and technologies, and engineering approaches, offering our customers efficient, innovative solutions and reliable mission support.

CFS clients include many federal agencies and DoD organizations conducting operations in CONUS and OCONUS locations.
